

FLORENCE MOYER

Executive Coach & Career Strategist

Coaching Specialties:

- Navigating career transitions
- Growing leadership skills
- Improving communication
- Managing effectively
- Organization and efficiency
- Addressing burnout
- Finding deeper meaning and purpose

In practice since 2012, Florence Moyer brings over twenty-five years' experience in health care management and public and private education to her coaching, speaking, and teaching.

Ms. Moyer holds an MBA in Health Care Management from Widener University and an MM in Music Education/Choral Conducting from Westminster Choir College.

Her training includes Master Coach Certification from the Martha Beck Institute as well as training in applied positive psychology from the Plink Center for Coaching Excellence, nature-based coaching from the Sagefire Institute and Career Invention Coaching from Executive Coach Michele Woodward.

She is certified to administer and interpret the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator, DiSC 2.0 and DiSC 363+, and is trained to interpret the VIA Survey of Character Strengths and Gallup StrengthsFinder 2.0.

When she's not helping mission-driven professionals get clear so they can make better decisions that lead to greater success, Ms. Moyer sings with the Mendelssohn Club of Philadelphia, where she also serves on the Chorus Management Council, and is a naturalist educator at Tyler Arboretum in Media, Pennsylvania.

She divides her time between the Philadelphia suburbs and the Ocean City, New Jersey, area.

Find out more about Florence at:
florencemoyer.com

